EuroGastro and WorldHotel trade fairs are events with a tradition that became a permanent part of industry calendars. They are implemented in cooperation with prestigious institutions and the media, full of workshops, training courses and conferences, as well as competitions organized by outstanding masters of culinary art. They constitute a platform for business meetings, exchange of experiences and acquisition of knowledge. It is a perfect place to present new products and technological solutions, acquire partners and contact with potential and current customers.

What do they think about the EuroGastro and WorldHotel Fair professionals from the HoReCa industry?

„Once again we are at the trade fair and we still see a great potential in it, we appreciate the quality of organization and, most importantly, it brings us measurable benefits.”

Marcin Wajda, marketing and PR director at WINTERHALTER GASTRONOM POLSKA

„EuroGastro is a perfect place to present our new products.”
Robert Padiasek, commercial director at SCM Sp. z o.o.

„We have always been with the trade fairs, they are an important element of our marketing, which customers expect from us. This is the best industry event in Poland.”

Mirosław Idzikowski, president at M.I.L.-SYSTEM

„We exhibit ourselves to show the best products from our offer, in order to acquire new customers and see what our competition offers. Trade fairs are extremely important to us, because they allow us to better understand the market needs.”

Marcin Liskiewicz, export manager at MIL OO HOME

„We are here every year and we always acquire new customers, but at this year's trade fairs we have an exceptionally high number of orders. Customers come here, as in the case of clothes the touch is very important.”

Lucyna Pilewicz, director at TEDMAR

„Trade fairs are a great place to present our new products. We highly value their flexibility and readiness to develop common solutions.”

Mieczysław Kozłowski, president at KOMAT

„The EuroGastro trade fair is a perfect place for us to create the recognition of a new product.”

Marcin Rusnarczyk, sales director at Hamda Trade Sp. z o.o.
